61/22 INVOICES TO BE APPROVED.

All invoices approved apart from the one from NYCC which needs further clarification.

62/22 DISCUSSION REGARDING RESPONSE RECEIVED FROM THE CONTRACTORS FOR THE DIFFERENCE IN THE NEW STEP DIAMETERS IN THE PLAYGROUND.

Councillors were happy with the response/ guarantee received no further action needed.

63/22 OTHER BUSINESS

Councillor S Trigg enquiring regarding the level of Insurance cover for the steps at the Arbour

Councillor Atkinson reading through a lot of various emails to and from the insurers which confirmed that we are covered for PI within the play area and the surrounding fencing/wall apart from the one under CDC responsibility. Councillor Atkinson does not have copies of the actual policy summary etc. Clerk to request the same from previous Clerk and Councillor Atkinson will collate all of the emails from the insurers. Clerk to also ask previous Clerk to see if she has any paperwork for works carried out on Arbour for the new path and to also ask for any details she may have regarding insurance and right of way. Councillor S Trigg is going to start inspections of the path to be undertaken once a month between the Councillors.

Clerk to request contractor to cut the nettles in the Arbour and around the path.

Items for the agenda for next month:

Councillor Vacancy, Approval of minutes, To discuss Code of Conduct, To Discuss changes in the standing order NALC model, Lease of Play Area, Electric Point in Play Area, Development Plan, Feedback from Parish Meeting, Ambulance Response, Street Lighting, Hanging Basket Holders, Maintenance Contract, Decision Making, Arbour Path, Dog Waste situation and grass, Jubilee Tree & Plaque, Rural Regeneration Grant
